DOCTORAL STUDENT ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR NEW AND CONTINUING STUDENTS

(From 21st to 23rd June, 2019 at Kinondoni regional centre and from 28^{ht} to 30th June, 2019 in selected Regional Centres)

The Directorate of Postgraduate Studies is pleased to inform you that from 21st-23rd June 2019 it will conduct orientation program for new PhD students and continuing students pursuing both Doctoral and Master by thesis at Kinondoni Regional Centre (Dar es Salaam). Other orientation sessions will take place at OUT Regional Centres in Mwanza, Mbeya, Iringa, Arusha, Dodoma and Zanzibar from 28th-30th June, 2019 simultaneously.

The three days orientation program is designed to provide new and continuing graduate students the information and tools needed to explore the support system provided by the Open University of Tanzania to support students to attain their academic ambitions. The orientation will provide information related to how to access resources, and learn about the wide range of academic resources and student support services on campus available to graduate students. This is a great opportunity where new students learn more about the university interact and network with fellow students and to get new inspirations from University administrators as well as faculty and current students and senior academicians. Registration will begin at 8 a.m. with a welcome session titled "Getting Connected" at 8:30. See all activities plan for the event is indicated in the DPGS website.
