The Open University of Tanzania (OUT) is a fully fledged, autonomous and accredited public University, established by an Act of Parliament Number 17 of 1992. The Open University of Tanzania offers its certificate, diploma, degree and postgraduate courses through the open and distance learning system. OUT’s academic programmes are quality-assured and centrally regulated by the Tanzania Commission for Universities (TCU).

Master in Tourism Planning and Management (MTPM)

Master in Tourism Planning and Management is hosted at the Faculty of Arts and Social Science in the Department of Tourism and Hospitality. The Department invites applications from eligible applicants to enrol in the Program for the academic year 2019/2020. The Program is aimed at producing well informed and highly knowledgeable graduates with thorough understanding of tourism as one of the most powerful forces in this globalizing world.

Upon successful completion, graduates should be in a position to demonstrate a theoretically based and practically sound level of competence for employment and entrepreneurship in the field of tourism and hospitality management. Experience shows that most of our graduates are now self-employed and others are working as tourism officers, tourism marketers, analysts, tourism planners, travel agents, managers, researchers, educators, policy developers and decision makers.

This is achieved through covering the following core courses.
