Announcement

To all Selected Cyber Security & Forensics Short Course Trainings

The Open University of Tanzania is announcing to all Cyber-Security & Forensics Course selected applicant that the course which was to start January,2020 has been suspended until early March 2020.This is due to the fact that, The University will have to train some higher official to get the full understanding of the course prior to disseminating this training to selected candidates.

TheUniversity apologies for any inconveniences might have caused by the delay.

From there the date for official course to start will be announced and communicated respectively.

Regards
