Call for Editorial Board Members in the African Journal of Economic Review (AJER)

The African Journal of Economic Review (AJER), established in 2013, is one of the African Journals Online (AJOL) that publishes high quality, scholarly and rigorous economic analytical studies on economic issues relevant to the African continent. The journal focuses on public sector economics, monetary economics, international trade and finance, agricultural economics, industrial economics, development economics, labor economics, health economics, environmental economics, and economic reforms. The AJER is seeking members to join its editorial board for the next five years, 2023-2027.

The responsibilities of editorial board include: -

- Recommend well-written and high-quality papers for publication in AJER
- Review at least 5 submitted manuscripts annually
- Provide an honest and constructive suggestion for improving the manuscript
- Support the quality control of the journal, recheck the reviewed manuscripts before publication
- Promote AJER in various conferences and other events

Eligibility for Becoming a Member of Editorial Board

- The applicant must hold a PhD in economic studies from an accredited academic institution
- Must have current publications (at least four (4) in the past two years) in the high impact journals

Those who meet the above requirements are encouraged to apply and submit a curriculum vitae/resume.

Applications should be submitted on or before 15th November 2022.

All enquiries, expression of interest and applications should be directed via email to: Dr. Mwoya Byaro, Editor, mwoyabyaro2018@gmail.com
